Yesterday Police Chief Clyde Klaumann received a letter from Daytona Beach, "a mecca for spring vacationing college students," according to J. Saxton Lloyd, member of the citizen's committee established for the purpose of studying controls of the situation in the Florida city.

Mr. Lloyd states he wrote to Chief Klaumann because of a report he had received of the latter's "fine record" of controlling Carmel's former "Hell Week."

"Won't you please tell me the procedure you have followed. The more detail the better. Specific cases would be helpful," Mr. Lloyd pleads in his appeal for help to Carmel's chief of police.

"Well that makes four communities to ask how we do it," Clyde told the Pine Cone. The Southern California cities of Balboa and Newport have sent similar pleas.

"And the chief of police in Palm Springs telephoned me at midnight asking for advice during a student invasion there," Clyde concluded.

The 16 top students in Carmel High School's graduating class not only have won academic honors but will be excused from final examinations at the discretion of the individual teacher of each class they take, if they so desire.

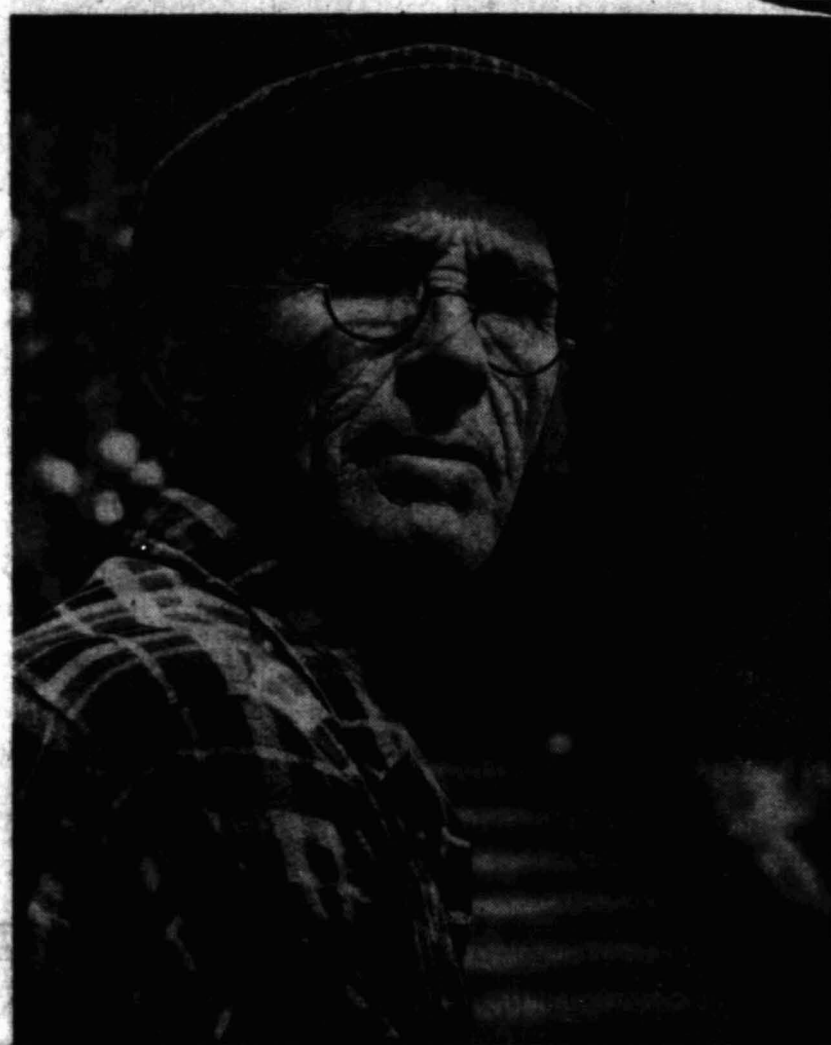

Hard work for four years certainly pays!

From County Kerry Came Tom Brosnan To Cherish Sunset School And Pupils

By RAYLYN PENNEY

"I've been happy on this job and that's the truth."

Tom Brosnan summed up his 21 years as maintenance manager of Sunset School with these words. Then he added, "That's all there is to the story. I've had a lot of jobs in my life, but I've liked working at Sunset the best."

However, a nearly countless number of Sunset students, former students, teachers, former teachers and parents in and out of Carmel don't quite agree that this is all there is to the story of Tom Brosnan.

This spring, from St. Patrick's Day till now, with the end not yet in sight, groups and individuals have been honoring Tom Brosnan in various ways on the occasion of his retirement.

Sunset Principal Orville Rogers began a recent eulogy directed at Tom with the words: "We can't operate without him. That's why we have to close Sunset School." On Tuesday night classified personnel of the district gave Tom a party at the school.

Students chose March 17 as a likely day to bestow on Tom a handsome silver tray. A P-TA plaque reads: "To Tom Brosnan, beloved custodian of Sunset School."

From County Kerry far away... you came to us as keeper of our school and of each child... Other gifts and plaudits of appreciation have come from other quarters.

However, these things didn't happen just because Tom Brosnan has been, over the years, a conscientious school custodian (which, in fact, he is) or an experienced gardener (which he also is).

Described variously as "one of the nicest guys who ever worked for the Carmel School District," and as "a pixilated Irishman," Tom has without effort found his

Council To Hear Room Tax Report Wednesday Night

The city council, during its regular June meeting on Wednesday evening, will receive a report and recommendations on a possible motel-hotel room tax levy. The report will be presented by members of the council's committee on administration, Mayor Eben Whittlesey and Councilman Francis Whitaker.

This morning Mayor Whittlesey stated that a study of the room tax possibility was undertaken as an exploration of ways and means to discover capital outlay funds "which are slipping behind in several areas."

He also indicated that a source of funds for the acquisition of greenbelt by the city is one of the capital outlay recommendations he and Mr. Whitaker will include in their report.

The planning commission, at the request of the council, is presently preparing a schedule and methods for acquiring such public lands, in accordance with the general plan of the city.

"It is obvious," the mayor observed, "that this study is relatively meaningless unless a study of a source of funds for greenbelt acquisition is undertaken at the same time."

He referred to a report presented to the council last month by Mr. Whitaker as a reason the committee undertook the greenbelt capital outlay funds and room tax consideration.

"We took up the study because this report contained specific recommendations. Although it was defeated by not being accepted by the council, the committee did not feel this was a disposition of the entire problem," he said, "particularly in its approach to a source of funds for greenbelt, tied to the doubling of business license taxes to provide off-street parking in the commercial district."

"This taxing combine and method of allocating funds was not acceptable to the city council, but the committee felt the whole subject had not been exhausted," he explained.

Mr. Whitaker's report last month contained the following recommendations: (a) business license taxes be increased 100 percent; (b) this city revenue be earmarked for the acquisition, improvement and maintenance of parking lots; (c) a room tax be enacted and this additional revenue be used as follows: 25 percent to match the business license tax increase, 25 percent for capital outlay purposes, 50 percent for greenbelt acquisition.

Sunset School Graduates Class Of '62, Honors '37 In June 14 Ceremonies

During graduation ceremonies at Sunset School on June 14 at 8:00 o'clock in the evening, 124 eighth graders will receive diplomas presented by Mrs. Herbert Blanks, member of the board of education of Carmel Unified School District.

The Class of 1962 at Sunset School will probably be the last to march down the two aisles of the auditorium to Elgar's Pomp and Circumstance procession, the same music to which hundreds of previous graduates have proceeded to the platform. (Present plans are to operate Sunset as a kindergarten-sixth grade school in the future.)

In honor of all former graduates, the Class of 1937 has been asked to return to this year's graduation at Sunset. These graduates will have special seats in the auditorium and receive a salute from the 1962 graduates. One is coming from as far away as Billings, Montana.

The Salute to the Flag will be led by Fred Twomey of the Class of 1962. The Reverend Joseph M. Ewing will pronounce the invocation. David Marvin, class president, will give the Address of Welcome. Ronnie Fukagawa will deliver the Salute to the Class of 1937.

There will be two valedictory speeches, one by Josh Feuerman, the other by Nancy Thompson.

Music on the program will include No Man Is An Island by Whitney, sung by the Girls' Choir; a piano solo, Chopin's Revolutionary Etude played by Robert Tarbox; and the class song, Climb Ev'ry Mountain by Rodgers, sung by the 124 graduates.

Orville C. Rogers, Sunset School principal, will present the Class of 1962 immediately before diplomas are presented.

Sunset Alma Mater, sung by the graduating class, will end the ceremonies and an era in the life of the school. The graduates will leave the auditorium to Kinyon's Triumphant March.

The procession and recessional music will be played by the Sunset School band directed by Mr. John Farr. Mr. William Purdy will direct the vocal numbers.

Sponsors of the Class of 1962 are Mrs. Beatrice Picard, Mrs. Willie Belle Mason, Miss Sally McPhail, Mr. Ed Whitmore, Mr. Thomas Cloud, and Mr. Neil Jensen.

The graduates will be: Steven Louis Abbott, Daniel Wesley Albert, Patricia Aldrich, Margaretta Roberta Alvarez, David Gerard Armanasco, Andrew Rockwell Baird, Pamela Kay Baldwin, William Lee Baugh, Gayle Arlene Bennett, Clayton W. Biggs, Carol Jane Botten, Rosemary Gale Bowers, Albert Peter Bradley, Vikki Sue Brinsmead, Eleanor Anne Brown, Meredith Burde, Richard Michael Clark,

Carmel High School Will Graduate 162 Seniors In King Hall At NPGS June 15

In King Hall at the U. S. Naval Postgraduate School on June 15, Dr. Robert E. Newton, member of the board of education of the Carmel Unified School District, will present diplomas to 162 Carmel High School graduates, including his daughter, Peggy, one of 16 honor students in the Class of 1962.

The other students who will graduate with honors are Nancy Bibb, Diane Caldwell, Warren Chapman, Carol Creighton, Harold Faulkner, Mike Graham, Sharyn Hibbe, Alison Miller, Karin Norberg, Norman Oleson, Linda Predmore, Jon Raggett, Pamela Rosewall, Marilyn Swim, and Pat Warren.

Graduation ceremonies will begin at 8:00 o'clock in the evening when the graduates, in caps and gowns, march to the platform to Elgar's Pomp and Circumstance procession played by the high school's brass choir.

The Reverend Roger Dieudonne will deliver the invocation. The Salute to the Flag will be led by Steven Harth following which the graduates and audience will join in singing America the Beautiful.

Jon Raggett will be the speaker for the Class of 1962. Sharon Hibbe will give the valedictory. Elaine Kachavos, vice president of the graduating class, will present the graduates' gift to the school.

The Senior Ensemble will sing Climb Ev'ry Mountain and Moon River during the graduation exercises.

Warren W. Edwards, Carmel High School principal, will announce awards won by members of the class, including P-TA - Girls' League scholarships. Winners of the latter will first learn of their awards at this time.

Stuart Mitchell, superintendent of the Carmel Unified School District, will present the Gold C award to two students judged as outstanding 1962 graduates selected on the basis of scholarship, leadership and participation in athletics. Mr. Mitchell will also present the Class of 1962.

Following the presentation of di-

CARMEL PONY LEAGUE OPENS PLAY THIS SATURDAY

Carmel's Pony League which embraces players in the 13-14 age group is set to open the 1962 season this Saturday morning with six teams swinging into action at the Carmelo diamond until the Little League season is finished and then move to the extended diamond at Little League Park.

Manager Bob Baugh's Cardinals, winners of the Pony League title in 1961, will be the target of the other five teams in the league and the Cards are given a good chance to repeat as the titleholders. The Valley Broncos came with a rush to finish high in the standing last year and the Broncos figure to be an important factor in this season's play.

Saturday's opening-day slate has the Dodgers going against the Giants in the 11:00 o'clock kickoff game. The Dodgers are managed by Wes Ball, while Bill Woolsey and Howard Baxter pull the strings for the Giants. Jack Miller's Braves take on Lt. Dick Winter's Navy Juniors in the 1:00 o'clock joust. At 3:00 o'clock, Cmdr. Frank Standring's Broncos will test Bob Baugh's 1962 edition of the Cardinals.

Pony League action continues at the Carmelo School diamond Monday evening with the Giants and Braves crossing bats in a 6:00 o'clock game.

CARMEL HIGH SPRING SPORTS LETTERMEN ANNOUNCED

Led by the undefeated golf and tennis teams which stroked their way through all Coast Counties Athletic League opposition without losing a match, Carmel High's annual spring sports awards assembly honored 145 athletes who participated in track, baseball, swimming, tennis, and golf.

Earning monograms on Coach Fred Rainer's golf squad were

Coach Jim Agan's varsity swimmers with enough points to earn their letters were Bruce Campbell, Pete Gamble, Keith Jones, Al Nishimura, Jeff Porter, Bruce Ricker, Greg Stitt, Bob Wells, Bob Albee, Tom Farrell, Milt Frumkin, John Hackbarth, Art Horning, and Chris Rose. Lightweight natators winning awards were Bill Aucourt, Tim Fry, Pat McGibney, Tim Petersen, Mike Proctor, Scott Ricker, Bud Smith, Stuart Smith, Fred Gehring, Jim Holt, Mike Newman, Mike Paul, Maynard Petersen, and Penn Rose. Swimmers earning participation certificates were Mike Aldringer, Lyn Beckley, Carl Burger, Dave Faunce, Mike Sharp, Bryan Broberg, Bill Harmon, Harold Johnson, Steve Rogers, Ken Sentner, and Lynn Smith.

Participation certificates went to Hugh Diltz, Rick Miller, Ron Mumford, Mark Sinclair, Art Carriell, Charles Davis, Tom Faia, Dave Harris, Bill Muscutt, Joe Terry, Jim Trivette, Terence Tweedie, and John Whittaker.

PILOT MARKET CINCHES FIRST-HALF PENNANT

	Won	Lost
Pilot Market	7	0
Sport Shop	5	2
Turner & McEldowney	4	2
Boys' Town	2	5
Wilder & Jones	1	5
P. A. Macs	1	6

Manager Art Carpenter and Coach Floyd Carter watched their Pilot Market Little Leaguers sew up the first-half championship during the past week as the grocers clipped Wilder & Jones to run their victory string to seven in a row. With only one game left to play in the first half, the Pilot nine is untouchable and is assured of a place in the league playoffs. The grocers topped Jack Cate's Wilder & Jones gang, 5 to 3, with Scott Lemon and Terry Mosolf allowing the plumbbers three hits over the six-inning route. Hart Silverie pitched a solid game for W & J, giving up only four hits as he struck out nine Pilot swingers. Jay Abersold swung the big mace for the plumbbers, getting two solid blows in three times at the plate. Shortstop Ronnie Parsons hit a pair of singles to lead the Pilot attack.

Newt Goodrich's Boys' Town crew dropped an 8-0 decision to Pilots as Ronnie Parsons struck out Newt's swingers enroute to a nifty one-hit pitching job. Jim Baldwin and Terry Mosolf paced the Pilot seven-hit attack, while Jay Argust was the only clothier batter to connect safely. Jack Campbell went the route on the mound for Boys' Town, striking out seven and giving up two free trips to first.

Gerald Artellan's power-packed Sport Shop hung onto second place in the Little League chase with an 8-6 win over Boys' Town and a 20-2 slugfest over the P. A. Macs. Randy Newman tossed a two-hitter at Boys' Town, both blows going the distance as Tiger Steele and Jack Campbell found the homer range. Pitcher Newman also enjoyed a successful day at the bat, stroking 3-for-4 to help his own cause. Rolie Champe hit a pair of doubles to pad his already healthy batting average. The Sports were really wearing their hitting clothes when they played Lee McGuckin's P. A. Macs, blasting out 15 hits to produce 20 runs. Mark Zanides, Mark Holbrook, Rolie Champe and Randy Newman were the top hitters for the winners, while Joe Scolet hit 2-for-3 for the losers.

Jim Kelsey's Turner & McEldowney nine served notice it will be hard to handle in the second half by notching its fourth victory of the season at the expense of the P. A. Macs. The doormat of the league last season with victories few and far between, the bricklayers have jelled into a cohesive unit which is capable of beating Tonight's Little League fare has Boys' Town going against P. A. Macs; Friday evening, it's Turner & McEldowney against Wilder & Jones; Monday, Pilot Market tests Turner & McEldowney; and Tuesday's slate has Sport Shop tangling with Wilder & Jones.

California Needs More State Parks

BY C. EDWARD GRAVES

Rarely has any Proposition on a state ballot had stronger bipartisan support than Proposition 5 on the June 5 ballot, the State Park and Recreation Bond Act. Both Governor Brown and Candidate Richard M. Nixon have issued enthusiastic statements in support of it.

Governor Brown's statement reads in part as follows:

"I am in full and enthusiastic support of Proposition 5. We need more parks, and we need them now. The $150,000 bond issue proposed in Proposition 5 is the fairest, most feasible way to acquire the land for new parks and beaches. The need is great and it is urgent.

"By using bonds to purchase park land, we will be following sound fiscal practice, amortizing capital expenditures over many years, the same method corporations use to build new facilities. We cannot ask today's taxpayers to saddle the entire burden of paying for parks that unborn generations will use."

Candidate Nixon has written:

"I strongly support the goals and purposes of the State Park and Recreation Bond Act and I intend to vote 'Yes' on Proposition 5 on the June ballot. In general I favor pay-as-you-go financing for all state services and I take a dim view of a constantly mushrooming bonded indebtedness with its steady nonproductive interest and carrying charges. But in this case there is particular justice in using bond financing because the program is aimed at the future needs of future generations of Californians. The ultimate consumer will thus bear part of the cost, and this is as it should be."

It should also be pointed out that of the $150 million, $95 million is for the State Park System, $45 million is for grants to counties for the establishment of regional parks, $5 million is for small craft harbor development and $5 million for Wildlife Conservation Board reports. It is a well-rounded and well-thought-out Act and deserves the support of every voter, regardless of his party affiliation.

Monterey County will benefit by proposed projects amounting to $5,094,000 under Proposition 5. These include 5,160 additional acres for recreation at Big Sur plus 250 additional camp units in the same area; 18 additional acres for the Carmel River-San Jose Creek beach area, cost $230,000, plus development of day facilities at the mouth of San Jose Creek, cost $250,000; restoration and day use of Monterey Monuments, cost one million dollars.

Senator Fred Farr (D-Carmel) is a strong supporter of Proposition 5.

Ginevra Peirce

Miss Mary Ginevra Peirce, a resident of Carmel over a number of years, died Saturday in a Salinas hospital following a prolonged period of illness.

A retired teacher, Miss Peirce was 95 years old. She was born in Grinnell, Iowa, on September 12, 1866, and taught for some 30 years before moving to this area in 1929. Although she had lived elsewhere on the Peninsula, she spent much time in Carmel and was well known here.

Survivors include several nieces, among them Mrs. Charles F. Ricker of Oakland; Mrs. Judith Small and Mrs. Esther McQueen, both of Los Angeles.

Private services were held at the Little Chapel-by-the-Sea, Pacific Grove, with inurnment to be in Miss Peirce's family plot in Hazelwood Cemetery, Grinnell. The Paul Mortuary was in charge of local arrangements.

Letters . . .

May 21, 1962

The Board of Trustees,
Carmel Unified School District,
Carmel, California

Dear Sirs:

During discussion of teachers' salaries, at your last meeting, I called to the Board's attention a report on May 8 that the Monterey School Board proposed an average increase of 3 1/2% in addition to the regular 2 1/4% average increment, for their teachers, and stated that I had made a study of the salary schedules for 123 districts throughout the state and found Carmel teachers' salaries were quite in line. I further stated that, based on the data secured from Mr. Greenfield, the salaries' increase would be about 8%, compared with 3 1/2% for Monterey.

I have since made a study of the budget in detailed form, particularly the salary schedule, and find that while Step I increased $100, or 2%, for all classes, it builds up in excess of $900, or 12%, in Class IV and V as is the case for all classes, including career teachers.

On this basis the teachers' salaries total $887,306 for 1962-63; compared with $760,760 for 1961-62, it is an increase of $126,546, or 16.7%. For principals, supervisors and others, the salaries total $163,877 for 1962-63; compared with $146,136 for 1961-62, it is an increase of $17,641, or 12%.

My sole purpose for undertaking this study was to determine why Carmel schools should cost 26% more, when compared with 53 other Unified School Districts throughout the state. Only six are higher than Carmel—five about $20 to $30, and one by $133—Beverly Hills.

The answer soon becomes obvious, in that the number of administrators, teachers and other personnel is capable of supporting an ADA twice that of Carmel, with an ADA of 2431 for this year compared with 2126 for 1958-59, or an increase of 305 or 14.3% over the last four years. For the corresponding period, the total expenditure for 1961-62 was approximately $1,563,550 compared with $1,084,184—an increase of $479,366, or 44.2%. In other words, expenditures have increased three times greater than the ADA.

Fundamentally, this high cost for Carmel results from the fact that while most schools throughout the state have about 30 pupils per teacher, the average for Carmel is but 23; the lowest is 19 at Sunset and the highest is 26 at River. This low ratio of pupils per teacher is similar to that for private schools.

One of your members informed me that it is your intention to continue operation of the schools as at present, for as long as you can afford it. But gentlemen, I ask, can

Highlands Residents May Appeal Approval Of Co-Op Apartments

Officers of the Carmel Highlands Association, expressing "shock and surprise" over a Tuesday action of the Monterey County Planning Commission approving a 10-unit cooperative apartment house on a picturesque cliff site beside Highway One in the Highlands, said today they will meet Saturday morning to decide what their next step will be.

Senator Fred Farr (D-Carmel) who at the Tuesday meeting spoke for the 35 Highlanders protesting the concrete structure to be built in a multiple residential zone over which the commission has design control jurisdiction, said today that his group has not ruled out the possibility of an appeal to the County Board of Supervisors.

Although commissioners said in effect Tuesday they thought outlawing of the proposed building would be going beyond their power, which is limited to design control alone, Senator Farr cited a county zoning ordinance on design control which says:

"The Planning Commission shall consider such plans, drawings and statements, in an endeavor to provide that such . . . improvement shall be so designed and constructed and . . . so located that they will not be of unsightly, undesirable or obnoxious appearance to the extent that they will hinder the orderly and harmonious development of the county, impair the desirability of residence or investment or occupation in the county as appearing to travelers passing through or traveling in the county, limit the opportunity to attain the optimum use and value of land and improvements, impair the desirability of living conditions in the same or adjacent agricultural, residential or commercial areas, or otherwise adversely affect the general property and welfare."

The provision further states that the commission "shall not approve any such plans until it is satisfied that such purposes will be accomplished thereby."

Richard Swan, assistant chairman of the Highlands Association, said his group would make the decision on whether to file an appeal at the meeting on Saturday. And he added, "This has become more than a matter for the Highlands alone. It's a matter of principle not confined to a single area."

Film Of Colombian Indian Burial Rites At MPC Tomorrow

A film depicting the burial rites of a mountain tribe in Colombia, South America, will be shown tomorrow evening in the library lecture hall at Monterey Peninsula College. Ben Curry, who made the movie, will give a running commentary. He is visiting his mother who lives in Carmel.

Mrs. Matthews To See Two Daughters Get Degrees . . . Also!

"I hardly know which news to tell first," says Mrs. Katharine C. Matthews of Carmel, who next week will see two daughters graduating from two different colleges in the space of a few days, last Saturday acquired a new grandchild, and is this week also announcing June wedding plans for her daughter Elizabeth.

The new grandchild is Rachel Scherba—"They may name her Rachel Lee," her grandmother said—daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Gerald Scherba of Chico. Rachel has one sister, Coral Elise, who will be two in July. Her father has for the past five years been assistant professor of biology at Chico State College. Her mother, the former Coral Matthews, is also a teacher.

But as if this alone weren't enough good fortune for a family, Mrs. Matthews will leave by plane tomorrow for Chicago, where she will meet two other daughters, Georgianne Matthews and also Mrs. George E. Shambaugh (nee Katharine Matthews,) and her son-in-law, Dr. George E. Shambaugh, III. Dr. Shambaugh, an internist at Walter Reed Hospital in Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Shambaugh, who will soon receive her master's degree in education so that she may specialize in teaching physical therapy, returned from Formosa last July where they were stationed overseas.

The Matthews and the Shambaughs will then all go to Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, to see Elizabeth Matthews graduate on Monday from Iowa Wesleyan College, with a major in psychology. Then, Elizabeth having joined them, they will return to Chicago for Georgianne's graduation on June 5 from Mundelein College where she, too, will receive a bachelor's degree. His Eminence Elbert Cardinal Meyer will preside over the commencement at Mundelein.

The sisters, of whom their mother is, needless to say, very proud, are daughters of Mrs. Matthews, who moved to Carmel some three years ago from Chicago, and of the late George F. Matthews, a Chicago attorney.

June 24 is the date chosen by Elizabeth for her wedding on the Peninsula to Larry Middleton of Gibson, Iowa. In announcing the nuptial plans, Mrs. Matthews said the couple will be married in the First Presbyterian Church, Monterey. Officiating will be Dr. William Thomas, minister emeritus of St. Paul's Church in Chicago, who is now a Peninsula resident. Dr. Thomas was the Matthews family pastor when they lived in Chicago. Reverend Paul Baird will also officiate.

The bridegroom-elect, a teacher for the past two years in Monmouth, Iowa, schools, will begin teaching next fall at Wyoming, Iowa, where the newlyweds will make their home.

TREE TOUR

The city council will hold its June tree tour meeting on Monday afternoon, convening at city hall at 4:00 o'clock.

Stops will be made on Thirteenth Avenue between Carmelo Street and Camino Real to inspect three accacia trees at the request of Harold Mack; at Monte Verde and Fifth to consider the installation of a street light requested by the First Church of Christ, Scientists; at the Forest Theater to decide first, whether a decomposed granite driveway which washes out each winter should be replaced with permanent seal coating around pebbles, secondly to look at the proposed site for a puppet theatre on the grounds of the municipal outdoor theatre, both at the request of the arts commission; lastly to inspect the Doud-Watson beach land, west of Scenic Drive and south of Ocean Avenue, as to whether or not the planning commission's decision granting a subdivision use permit for the property shall be upheld in an appeal to the council.

Seniors Are Having Fun This Week, Then Dead Week, Finals

The Class of 1962 at Carmel High School is winding up its own special week of activities before it settles down to a week of concentrated study before final examinations.

On Monday the senior picnic, was held in high spirits, despite gray skies, at Big Sur State Park. The class treasury was healthy enough to afford a meal of barbecued steaks, presided over by class sponsors Evelyn Sharp, Phyllis Gray, Peter Lyon and Charles Moody. The boys in the class made a contribution toward the purchase of the steaks, while the girls supplied salads, casserole dishes, bread and dessert.

Tuesday was senior teaching day, with members of the class who had previously signed up taking over some of the teaching duties at the high school.

Wednesday, a school holiday, was spent rehearsing for the senior assembly which took place this afternoon. Today was also dress up day, although it was decided this year to draw the line and not allow roller skates, bicycles and animals to be part of the dress up program.

The senior assembly, entitled This Is Your Life, Class of 1962, was made up of a series of skits simulating a television show, interspersed with commercials.

Tomorrow the civics classes go on a field trip to Salinas to observe a Superior Court session, and at night the graduates will be given a farewell dance by the three other classes at the high school.

Special church services will be held on Sunday in honor of the senior class. There will be a service at 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon at the Carmel Presbyterian Church, with a reception, immediately following for seniors, their families and friends in Westminster Hall, below the church. The Carmel Mission Basilica will honor the graduating class Sunday morning at the 11:00 o'clock Mass.

And then, beginning on Monday—Dead Week!

Abel George (Buck) Warshawsky, who once studied art under Winslow Homer and was a distinguished member of the American expatriate art colony in Paris early in the century, died yesterday evening at 7:00 o'clock of a heart attack in his studio in Monterey.

Buck, the name he went by among his friends, was 76 years old, and had moved to the Peninsula in 1941 at the urging of his friend, another famous Peninsula artist, the late William Ritschel.

Active as a painter to the very end of his life, Buck had just completed a portrait this week and was planning to begin another. He once said of his work, "I never take a day off. Why should I? I work every day and so every day is a holiday." A posthumous one-man show of his work will be held in September at the Maryhill Museum, Maryhill, Washington, where work of his is included in the museum's permanent collection.

Other museums and collections in which his work has appeared include the Luxembourg Museum and the Petit Palais in Paris, the Corcoran Gallery, Washington, D. C., the Cleveland Museum of Art, the Canajoharie Museum of American Painting in New York, Los Angeles Museum of Art, the Legion of Honor Museum and the M. H. de Young Museum in San Francisco.

Among the many honors he achieved over his long and dedicated lifetime was the decoration of the French Legion of Honor. He

PROPOSITION 3

Through an unfortunate oversight, the wording of Proposition 3 on the June 5 ballot inadequately describes this bond issue as "$270 million for building construction, equipment and site acquisition needs of state government." Actually, 80 per cent of these bonds are pledged, to provide building and facilities urgently needed by the University of California, the California State colleges and the junior colleges if they are not to begin to turn away thousands of qualified students every year. The remaining 20 per cent of the bonds will provide facilities for the populations of state hospitals, correctional institutions for youth, and for construction of conservation camps. In order that the electorate may have these complete facts before them when they vote on Proposition 3, the undersigned respectfully request that you publish this statement in your newspaper.

Governor Edmund G. Brown,

Dr. Glenn S. Dumke, chancellor, California State Colleges.

Works Will See Donna Graduate

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Work, Jr., of Pebble Beach, have flown East for the graduation of their daughter, Donna, from Wellesley College on Monday.

was also an honorary life member of the Society of Western Artists, among others. Although his studio, which combined the styles of a continental atelier with a Breton cottage in memory of his 32 years' residence in France, was in Monterey, he had many friends in Carmel and was at one time a member of the Carmel Art Association.

Buck was born in Sharon, Pennsylvania, of Lithuanian parents on December 28, 1885, and moved as a youngster with his family to Cleveland, where he attended Cleveland public schools and the Cleveland School of Art. Later he studied at the National Academy of Design and the Art Students League in New York, going to Paris in 1909, where he studied at Julien's Academy and La Grande Chaumiere.

Called by his critics a "French Impressionist," "post-Impressionist" and "representationalist," at various times in his career, Buck spurned these labels and strove toward what he believed was the ideal combination of the "courageous" use of color and the careful composition and draftsmanship found in the Old Masters he admired.

In addition to Homer, Buck knew many of the other painters who were at work in this country and Paris during his own active years, including Louis Loeb, Thomas Hart Benton, Franek Kupka, Modigliani, Henri (Dunier) Rousseau, and Renoir.

Around 1930 he married Emilienne Baret, also a painter. She preceded him in death in 1932 in Brittany. His marriage to Ruth Tate Warshawsky, who survives him, took place in 1941 in New York City.

Other survivors are three sisters, Mrs. Celia Bigelson, Mrs. Flora Mack, and Miss Minna Warshawsky, all of Cleveland; three brothers, David of Cleveland, and Sam and Mort, both of Los Angeles, and a number of nieces and nephews. He was also the beloved godfather of several youngsters both in this country and abroad.

Memorial services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 1:00 o'clock in the Mission Mortuary, with Rabbi Elliot Burstein of Beth Israel Temple, San Francisco, officiating.

Funeral rites will follow in Cleveland at the Cleveland Temple Memorial on Sunday afternoon.

Friends may honor the late painter by donations in his name to the New Community Hospital.

Music On The Peninsula

BY MARY LINDSAY-OLIVER

There is no doubt that the Monterey Peninsula is acquiring international recognition for its artists and artistic enterprises. John Gosling of Carmel, County Symphony conductor, is in England as one of few American conductors accepted for the triennial international contest for young composers held in Liverpool. News now comes from Daniel Llorde, International headquarters in Cannery Row that Mr. Llorde has been invited as the first and only American puppet theatre to participate in the Braunschweiger Wech des Internationalen Puppenspiels of 1963.

This is international recognition of the first importance to be asked to the festival in Braunschweig, Germany.

In the letter of invitation to Mr. Llorde, Dr. Harre Seigel, famous sculptor and puppeteer, cites "the amazing artistic results" of Llorde's marionettes and encourages Llorde's acceptance as "a political necessity for The United States."

The festival is held every three years for eight days and attended by critics and concert-goers from all Europe.

It will also be the first performance of an extended tour next year to European art, drama and music festivals by Llorde's International. Performances will be given with guest artists from France, Italy, Austria, England, Russia, Rumania, Czechoslovakia, Poland and even Japan, China and South Africa in Braunschweig.

A recently arranged new "Concert Theatre" by the Puppets will be opened to the local public at the Studio Theatre in Cannery Row the last week of June.

In the meantime, the workshop studio continues to be open to the public without charge each afternoon except Monday and Tuesday.

A local composers' program is pending at MPC Music Hall on June 9, details of which will be given next week. Local composers everywhere are receiving more deserved attention today. Two from San Francisco were included in the Philadelphia Orchestra's program this week in the Opera House by Conductor Eugene Ormandy.

Gilbert And Sullivan Operetta Opens At Circle Theatre June 8

The opening date of Gilbert and Sullivan's Iolanthe at the Golden Bough Circle Theatre is June 8. The American Cancer Society will benefit from the proceeds of the first performance, which also marks the beginning of the theatre's summer season. The comic opera will run through July 15 on week ends only.

Iolanthe is the second musical work to be staged at the Circle. It follows by six months the highly successful Trial by Jury, another Gilbert and Sullivan collaboration, and will be directed by the man primarily responsible for that success, Ted Huffman of Pebble Beach. Featuring a much larger cast, elaborate costumes and scenic effects, Iolanthe promises to be a full-scale entertainment for the ear and eye alike.

The sixth of Gilbert and Sullivan's dozen operettas, Iolanthe opened the new Savoy Theatre in 1882. Its initial run of fourteen months rated it as only a moderate hit by Savoyard standards, but its sharp satire of the British peerage has never lost its point, and the work has grown in popularity throughout the intervening 80 years.

The usual complexities of comic opera plots are in themselves satirized by Gilbert, who manages in the two acts of Iolanthe to mix up the British House of Lords with a band of fairies, and reduces the rules of the Empire to quivering wrecks in the face of the majestic Queen of the little people. Sullivan has joined him in lampooning the aristocracy with such patriotic parodies as Blue Blood and When Britain Really Ruled the Waves. Never have Britons taken more delight in laughing at themselves than in this rollicking travesty of everything that is most British.

Class Of 1962 Last To Graduate From Tularcitos School

Tularcitos School in Carmel Valley will hold its last graduation exercises on June 14 at 8:00 o'clock in the evening, as future plans are to have all eighth graders in this area of Carmel Unified School District attend Carmel Junior High School.

There will be four student speakers. The Welcoming Address will be given by Susan May. Robin Brewer will speak on Stamps Are My Hobby. The Movie Industry will be the title of Richard Pryor's dissertation. Larry Hearn will discuss Planning For The Future.

The musical part of the program will include a flute concerto by Vivaldi played by Larry Hearn; Statue at Tsarskoie-Selo by Cui sung by the Girls' Chorus; and a graduation song by the Class of 1962.

Clayton Neill, Jr., member of the Carmel Unified School District board of education, will award diplomas. The invocation and benediction will be delivered by the Reverend Donald Johnson. Scholarship awards will be presented by Jerry Kelley, president of the Carmel Valley Kiwanis Club. William Mallek is the principal of Tularcitos School.

Graduates are as follows:

Louise Coggeshall, Robert Rhoades, Mary Ellen Dutton, Steven Antoncich, Carol Maher, Carolyn Johnson, Richard Pryor, Janet Millar, Timothy Hall, Susan G. May, Linda R. Spring, Anne S. Mewhirter, Catharine Brewer, Richard Husty, Jr., William Hagn Lossel, Sheryl Johnson, Stephen A. Rial, Stephen C. Kenyon, Terry Ann Hodges, John N. Vanetti, Diane Konkright, Donna Carter;

FIRST LAYMEN'S SUNDAY AT NEW CHURCH

A civil engineer who is also a director and charter member of the Church in the Round, will be the speaker before the new society Sunday morning at 11:02 o'clock in the Cypress Club. Ross T. Atkinson, a University of Washington alumnus and registered professional engineer in the State of Washington, will speak on Applied Art.

The program marks the first Laymen's Sunday for the group, which plans appearances of its various members in the pulpit as a regular monthly program.

Atkinson, who is vice president of the congregation, is also the designer of preliminary plans for a circular church, construction of which is in the future plans of the Church in the Round.

From County Kerry Came Brosnan To Cherish Sunset School

way into the affections of his associates, both adults and children. More than one child in trouble has searched out Tom and found him ready to hear and help. More than one boy in a fight has felt the long, strong arm of the Irishman pulling him out of the fracas, and heard a firm lecture on the uselessness of fighting delivered in Irish idiom.

That this accent of Tom's has been preserved intact throughout something like a half century in America is probably one of the outward signs of his stubborn individuality in a changing world.

For Tom Brosnan left his native County Kerry at the age of 18, when he and his 16-year-old sister, who were two of an original Irish farm family of 13 children, came to Los Angeles to join four brothers and one sister who had already crossed the ocean.

Working at jobs in mining and construction, Tom became an expert powder man. ("Some we would set off by fuse, some by battery. The trick is knowing how to drill and how much powder to put in. It's information I haven't had any call to use in a long time.")

Tom saw America by traveling through most of the states, working in many of them as well as in Canada and Mexico. It was when he was working as a foreman for Pacific Gas and Electric Company putting in a service line at Tres Pinos that he first came to Carmel over a week end. A romantic and fateful trip it was.

"I saw a girl walking down Ocean Avenue that I would like to know. She had long, dark hair. Afterward, I came back and looked all over town for her. I had almost given up hope when I saw her again in church." The church was Carmel Mission and the girl was, of course, Lourdes Narvaez, daughter of one of Carmel's pioneer families and the present Mrs. Brosnan.

The couple, who now live near San Carlos and Seventh on property where Mrs. Brosnan was born and which has been in her family for several generations, became parents of two sons and a daughter, Tom, Jr., now of Sumpter, South Carolina; Daniel, now stationed at Lowry Air Force Base in Denver, and Mrs. George Roush of Santa Barbara. There are also two grandchildren in the Brosnan family, Timothy Martin Brosnan, son of the Tom Brosnans, Jr., and Barbara Roush.

Over the years, Mr. and Mrs. Brosnan have been responsible for founding and nourishing a Carmel tradition—the annual Brosnan Christmas party for the Sunset School staff.

But when he first came to Carmel to stay following his marriage to Lourdes, Tom says, he worked for the M. J. Murphy lumber yard and had a succession of other jobs including that of gardener at the Noel Sullivan ranch in Carmel Valley.

In 1941, the late Otto Bardarson, then superintendent of Carmel's two schools, asked Tom if he would like to be custodian at the high school.

Rare Agreement!

"I thought I'd try the job for a couple of weeks, just to fill in," Tom recalls. "But after the two weeks Mr. Bardarson wanted me to come down to Sunset. I liked that because it was close to my home (about a block,) and I found out what fine people were there."

The result was that Tom stretched the two weeks into a stay that included the terms of five district superintendents and three Sunset principals, Art Hull, Mrs. Helen Wood and Orville Rogers.

"Orville Rogers is the best man I ever worked for," Tom said. "Now don't forget to put that in the story because it's the truest thing you'll ever hear me say."

One noon recently, when Tom had come home to eat lunch, he was startled by a sound in his patio and looked out to find some 40 Sunset students crowded up to his door ready to sing, For He's a Jolly Good Fellow.

"I don't know why they do things like that," Tom mused. "I've been mighty strict with them, so strict I don't even know sometimes why they talk to me. I've pointed out right and wrong to them many a time. Then they turn around and do something like sending me a letter from all of them the time I was sick."

When his duties are over at the school, Tom and Mrs. Brosnan will begin a leisurely vacation trip to the Eastern States, and to Denver, to visit their sons, and to Los Angeles to visit members of

New Headmaster Appointed, RLS Graduation June 8

The appointment of John D. Hodgdon of DeWitt, New York, to the position of headmaster at the Robert Louis Stevenson School in Pebble Beach has been announced by Robert U. Ricklefs, present headmaster and president of the board of directors. Hodgdon will assume his new duties during the coming summer.

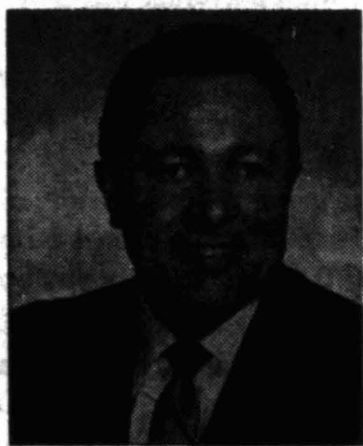

He has been headmaster of the Pebble Hill School near Syracuse, New York, for the past ten years and prior to that he was assistant headmaster at the same college preparatory institution. He is a graduate of the University of New Hampshire and holds both B.A. and M.A. degrees. His major subject the flourishing clan of Brosnans there.

Asked if he contemplated a trip back to County Kerry, Tom at first parried, "Nope. I've been waiting for them to build a bridge and they haven't yet." Later he added, "There's no point in going back there when my life and my friends are over here."

Mr. Ian Belangee, president,
Carmel Kiwanis Club,
Dear Mr. Belangee:

I just received a letter from Mother today with the news of the Kiwanians' gift. I am so very grateful for your help; and, I hope you will thank every one of the other members for me. I believe in Crossroads Africa very much; and I will certainly try to live up to the support which you all are giving me. Sharing our experiences in Africa with as many people as possible is a basic part of the Crossroads program; and I certainly would like to talk to the Kiwanis Club when I get back.

I have some details about this summer already, which make me very eager to get started. I will be in the village of Kikambala on the Indian Ocean, just 15 miles north of Mombasa, the second largest city in Kenya. We will be working with African students to build an addition to a school in Kikambala. Most of the girls on Crossroads also spend several hours a day teaching English to the village children and answering questions from the women. I will do some traveling, too, and have the opportunity to meet some government leaders and learn something about the political situation in Kenya. I know I will learn a great deal; and I hope to be a sincerely good representative of America, too.

Thank you again for your help. I will do my best to use it well.

Yours very truly,
Jennie-Keith Hill.

Editor's note: Jennie-Keith is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hill of Carmel. She is a graduate of Carmel High School where she was the valedictorian of the Class of 1960. The Carmel Kiwanis Club gave her $100 toward the amount she had to raise to work in Africa this summer.

The first annual Northern Monterey County Baseball Breakfast was an unqualified success. Approximately 2,700 people attended the event, and nearly $2,000 was collected on behalf of the teams of Little League, Connie Mack, Babe

Ruth, and Pony League for league expansion and purchase of uniforms and equipment. Also, the community enthusiasm was overwhelming, making this the largest breakfast in Monterey history.

More specifically, we are deeply grateful to you for your generous contribution in this most worthwhile civic endeavor. You have not only made us happy, but you have made a lot of young ball players on the Monterey Peninsula happy, too. Please accept our sincere thanks in the form of the enclosed Certificate of Appreciation.

Very truly yours,

Stanford students have petitioned the University authorities for freedom to possess and use intoxicants on the campus. According to press reports, the petition "may have a chance of getting somewhere with university trustees."

The incident recalls a bit of university and state history of the era before "cocktail parties" became standard requirements of social, educational and political gatherings.

The opening of the University of California found parents reluctant to have their children residing away from home where they might become afflicted with the "liquor habit." To meet the situation, the Legislature enacted the so-called "Dry Zone Law." It prohibited the manufacture, sale or possession of intoxicants on the campus or within one mile thereof.

The founders of Stanford University, quite in accord with such policy, planned to make Mayfield the entrance to the University at which all trains would stop—on condition that Mayfield would close its saloons. Mayfield refused. The founders thereupon, on the then vacant land owned by Timothy Hopkins, established what is now the City of Palo Alto, as the entrance to the university. All trains, thanks to Founder Stanford's influence, stopped at Palo Alto. Not all stopped at Mayfield.

Into each Palo Alto deed went provision prohibiting the manufacture or sale of intoxicants.

Scandals of students becoming intoxicated in the "Mayfield grogeries," as they were called, found expression in a popular University song of the period. Eventually, under urging of the university authorities and demand of public opinion, Mayfield closed its saloons.

The resourceful "grog-keepers" thereupon moved over the county line into Menlo Park. There, student involvement became even worse than at Mayfield. University authorities accordingly petitioned the Legislature to grant Stanford the same "Dry Zone" protection as accorded the University of California.

It was found that a mile "Dry Zone" would not take in the "Menlo Park grogeries." So, the Stanford Dry Zone was made a mile and a half.

To grant the petition of Stanford students for freedom to have and consume intoxicants on the campus would be decidedly in opposition to the policy and planning of the university founders.

Sincerely,
Franklin Hichborn

The oldest incorporated trade association in the country, the United States Brewers Association, was organized in 1862 . . . the same year that

IN CALIFORNIA, the San Francisco Stock Exchange Board was founded, and opened to frenzied trading in the Virginia City mining stocks. Whether stocks went up or down, California's financiers knew that, for sparkling refreshment, beer was a good investment.

For then as now, beer was the traditional beverage of moderation. But beer means more than enjoyment to our state. The Brewing Industry pays more than 12 million dollars in taxes to the State of California each year, money that helps support our hospitals, schools and parks.

TODAY, in its centennial year, the United States Brewers Association still works constantly to assure maintenance of high standards of quality and propriety wherever beer and ale are served.

UNITED STATES
BREWERS ASSOCIATION, INC.

Mission accomplished.

Ten hours after their first take-off, these two planes had broadcast 90,000 pounds of rice seed over 600 acres! It was an average day's work for the pilots based at the Sutter County Airport, just two miles from the Wells Fargo Bank in Marysville. And from spring to harvest, from dawn to dusk, "dusters" crisscross the great paddies of Sutter, Butte, Glenn, Colusa and Yolo counties. They fertilize, plant, spray—helping to economically produce the highest rice yield per acre in the nation!

In Northern California, rice is typical of a broadly diversified, highly specialized agriculture that now produces 6% of the national farm income on 2% of the farm land—with a future secured by burgeoning population and broadening markets.

And this basic industry supports others, from agricultural chemicals to food processing, from farm machinery to shipping by land and sea. Rice alone is a $31 million annual export to India, Indonesia, other countries of the Pacific basin.

This is the sturdy economic pattern in Northern California—Wells Fargo country from Eureka to King City, from San Francisco to the Sierra. It has always been our own special land—its people and its promise our first concern.

City Council To View Doud-Watson Land Before Rendering Decision On Appeal Against Three-Lot Division

Following a public hearing on an appeal Monday night, city councilmen decided to visit beach property owned by Anita Doud and Kathleen Doud Watson this coming Monday afternoon.

Property owners in the vicinity of the above land, situated on the west side of Scenic Drive south of Ocean Avenue, appealed to the council against a February 28 decision of the planning commission that granted a use permit for subdivision of the 12,000 square foot Doud-Watson property into three building sites with a ten-foot easement over the site fronting on Scenic Drive giving access to the two sites fronting on the beach.

Adjacent property owners, in their appeal to the council, gave ten reasons against permitting subdivision of the Doud-Watson land which is three-fourths of an original 16,000 square foot lot. One-fourth of the original lot previously was established as a legal building site and a house now exists on this 4,000 square foot site.

The reasons are: The Doud-Watson subdivision will lessen the value of property and residences in the area; increased structures in the area will not be harmonious with the esthetics of the beach; also result in a cluttered appearance and transient rentals; the subdivision is contrary to the city code; contrary and incompatible with the general zoning plan of the city; detrimental to public welfare; destructive of publicly-owned natural resources; detrimental to the health, safety, peace, morals, comfort and general welfare of property owners in the area; damages surrounding properties without just compensation as provided by the constitutions of the State of California and the United States; lastly, that the planning commission sitting as a board of zoning adjustments acted in an arbitrary and unreasonable manner when they granted the use permit to subdivide the Doud-Watson land, with the condition that the ten-foot easement should not be a public way but only for private access to the two lots fronting on the beach.

Councilman Herbert Blanks disqualified himself from any consideration of the matter at the public hearing on the appeal Monday night as he was chairman of the planning commission when the use permit was granted.

Donald Smith, attorney for the appellants, protested the subdivision on the grounds that a 3,000 square-foot lot was in theory created by the quasi-public easement along one side and would mean in future more sites of similar size in the area which still has several large-size original lots, parts of which have no access to public streets because of the city's abandonment of beachside Del Mar Avenue.

Such subdivision of the original large lots defeats the general plan of the city by creating many small holdings on the beach front, he added, and questioned the right of the planning commission to grant the Doud-Watson use permit under existing city ordinances.

Small holdings such as the Doud-Watson sites are against esthetics, good planning and good zoning, he continued, because the owners of present large beach holdings in the area will have the right to subdivide similarly to the Doud-Watson sites, if the latter subdivision is permitted.

The density of the beach area will then exceed motel site density, also other commercial uses in the city, he protested. The Doud-Watson subdivision, or others of the same kind, were in nature not residential as they might be rented to transients, Mr. Smith added.

He presented a proposal of his clients that instead of the ten-foot easement, a 20-40 foot driveway off Scenic be granted across the Doud-Watson land and owners of property adjacent to the Doud-Watson land grant access over their land, from this easement, thus providing entry on all sides to sites adjacent to the Del Mar abandonment. He said that his client, Murray Metzbaum, offered the city a deed to the part of Del Mar Avenue abandonment fronting the Doud-Watson land on which he pays taxes on the basis of quitclaim ownership.

Mr. Smith concluded by stating that a "meeting of the minds" between landowners in the Del Mar abandonment beach area would prevent destruction of the ocean front.

Webster Street, attorney for Miss Doud and Mrs. Watson, pleaded that democracy meant making the most land available to the most people, as proposed by the three-site subdivision of the 12,000 square foot Doud-Watson property. He pointed out that a good many large lots of a similar nature in Carmel had been treated in this way in the past.

When Del Mar was closed, he contended, the Doud-Watson property was given an easement to the front of the beachside lots. This easement, without due compensation, has been quitclaimed to private ownership, although the purpose of abandoning Del Mar by the city was to preserve the area for recreation. The police chief, fire chief, building inspector and city engineer had stated that the 10-foot Doud-Watson easement met the requirements of each of their departments, he emphasized.

As to the esthetics of the beach area being harmed by his clients' subdivision, Mr. Street said, "A house which is built on a lawful building site does not have to be rented." Proposed future owners of two lots plan to occupy dwellings on the subdivided sites themselves, he indicated. The subdivision, therefore, would not create any different situation than now exists in the neighborhood. He knew of no instances in the city where an easement had been deducted from the area of a site, as Mr. Smith maintained should be required.

Some of the opponents of the subdivision have large lots, others as small as those proposed by Miss Doud and Mrs. Watson, he concluded.

In answer to a question from Mayor Eben Whittlesey, Mr. Street replied that he knew of one instance where a use permit for a subdivision with a driveway similar to his clients' had been granted.

In rebuttal, Mr. Smith stated that Mr. Street's statement that the Doud-Watson subdivision provided a democratic use of the property was "a spurious argument." He continued by pointing out that, if remaining large beach-front lots are subdivided as in the Doud-Watson case, an "Ocean Park, Santa Monica" type of development would result in Carmel. He repeated that the easement was a quasi-public way, not a true easement such as granted utility companies; and that cars could be parked in the driveway over the easement.

Mrs. Gladys Johnston, Carmel realtor, told the council she had sold sites created by subdivision of larger sites at the south end of the block in which the Doud-Watson land is located and "no one in the block objected." She declared the appellants' appeal to the council was "a selfish gesture."

Mrs. Philip Schneeberger pointed out to the council traffic hazards on Scenic Drive in front of her home and maintained that the Doud-Watson subdivision would aggravate this condition.

Building Inspector Floyd Adams informed the council that at the

Carmel MPC Faculty Members Announce Plans For Summer

Members of the Monterey Peninsula College faculty who live in the Carmel area have varied plans for the summer. Some will instruct MPC summer sessions, others will teach at other institutions, study or travel.

At the University of California in Berkeley, Joel Readio of the engineering department will teach a six-week course in engineering measurements; Rod Holmgren, chairman of the journalism department, a course in journalism. Owen Patrick of the MPC electronics department will study at the same university.

Richard Robinson of the natural sciences department, and Cloan Powell of the physical sciences department will both study at the University of Oklahoma under National Science Foundation sponsorship, the first in his second year of a three-year fellowship he won competitively.

Diane Smith, MPC physical education instructor, will work at the Perry-Mansfield School of the dance in Colorado Springs.

MPC director of student activities, H. Duncan Sprague, will work on his doctorate degree at the University of the Pacific and has received an appointment as assistant to the chairman of the department of educational psychology for the duration of the first summer session.

DeForest Sweeney, English instructor, will attend a poetry workshop, June 18-22, at San Francisco State College, then travel in the Northwest with his family. Business instructor Mary Riley will take part in the SFS cooperative field participation program in the office occupations, working in San Francisco offices days and attending seminars in the evenings.

English instructor Ray Fabrizio will finish a book of children's poems and play first flute in the Bach Festival orchestra.

Captain S. Y. Cutler will visit the World's Fair in Seattle and travel by automobile in the United States and Canada.

Carmel faculty members who will teach at MPC this summer are Miss Patricia Elliott, Miss Marjorie Langdon, Richard Frazer and August Armanasco. Miss Margaret Thompson, librarian, and Charles Mulkey, technical vocational dean, will also remain at MPC campus this summer.

MPC To Graduate 29 Carmel Students In June 16 Ceremony

Monterey Peninsula College will commemorate its fifteenth anniversary and graduate 146 sophomores, largest number in MPC's history, on June 16 in the stadium on campus.

The commencement exercises, preceded by a baccalaureate ceremony, will begin at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon.

Dr. Remsen D. Bird of Carmel, president emeritus of Occidental College and one of the founders, 15 years ago, of MPC, will be the principal speaker. Mark Raggett of Carmel will be MPC board of education representative at the ceremony.

During the ceremony, Dr. Frederick R. Huber, MPC president, will present two Outstanding Citizen of the Community awards, inaugurating a policy for honoring persons not actively involved in the daily functions of the college.

The Right Reverend Harry Clinch of Carmel Mission Basilica, auxiliary bishop of the Fresno-Monterey Diocese, will officiate at the baccalaureate service at 11:00 o'clock in the college library.

Following is a list of the graduates from Carmel:

Jean Elston, William T. Hicks, John C. Ley, Georgina Millington, Pauline A. Popoff, Frank Adams, Harold Campbell, Angelita M. Concepcion, George Crispo, Joanne Davis, Dathel DeMaria, Karen Felton, Andrew Gray, Ann Isenberger, Jo Anne Kinlon, Ted Ledbetter, Margaret I. Lynch, Warren Masten, Brian Morton, Herbert W. Myers, Joanne L. Nix, Dennis Peavey, Charles Perez, Nina Sinkevich, Thomas B. Smith, Jearren Stallings, Veronica Taylor, Ann Whiting, Thomas H. Wilson.

Carmel Valley: Charles Hisington, Madge C. Holmes, Patricia Kennedy, John E. Young (student body president).

Pebble Beach: Asman Khan, Sandra Petersen.

LENA ON DEAN'S LIST

Lena Virga of Carmel has been placed on the Dean's List for outstanding scholarship at San Jose State College. Lena is majoring in medical technology.

FROM A LIBRARIAN'S NOTEBOOK

By Ruth Galvin Thornburg

This library and this village have recently received an interesting and valuable gift from Mrs. H. M. Tolfree, whose generosity to the library has been demonstrated several times before this, as you may well remember. This time she has given us her collection of autographs, a collection upon which she spent many years of concentrated effort and interest. The arrangement is by related interest of the persons whose signatures she collected. Members of Congress together, Presidents and Vice-Presidents in another grouping, personnel of the theatre and opera in still another, and so on. Wherever possible, Mrs. Tolfree mounted the autograph beside a picture of the person and this arrangement adds to the interest of the collection and gives it life.

The library will have the collection on exhibition for a while and because it is all mounted in one book, we shall do as we have done with other showings, and turn the pages of the book every few days, so that patrons will have an opportunity to enjoy the entire collection.

The oldest autograph is that of Henry Clay, which was in the possession of a member of Mrs. Tolfree's family. Others date down through the years almost to the present day. They will be on exhibit in the small case in the main reading room.

Among the new books, one of the most interesting is The Image by Daniel Boorstin, who is a professor of American history at the University of Chicago. The subtitle of the book is What Happened to the American Dream, and in answering the question Dr. Boorstin discusses what he calls the "graphic revolution." He says we have flooded our world with "pseudo events" and images and by this process we have become tourists instead of travelers. We have displaced real shapes by shadows, and have given up ideals for images. He believes that we have given up the ability to recognize reality. If he is right, and he probably is, we have reached a sad stage in our national development.

We have two volumes of poetry for you this week. One is entitled Long Feud and is the poetry of Louis Untermeyer. The other is Final Harvest which was edited by Thomas Johnson and contains 575 of the poems of Emily Dickinson. Each poem is accompanied by two dates, the one for the earliest known date of the manuscript, the other for the date of first publication. In one she says:

I started Early—Took my Dog—
And visited the Sea—
The Mermaids in the Basement
Came out to look at me—

And Frigates in the Upper Floor
Extended Hempen Hands—
Presuming Me to be a Mouse—
Aground—upon the Sands.

French Diplomat To Give Art Talk For L'Alliance Francaise

French diplomat Jacques de la Ferriere will come to the Monterey Peninsula today to address the members and friends of L'Alliance Francaise. The meeting at which M. de la Ferriere will speak will be held at 8:30 o'clock this evening, in the Carmel Art Association galleries. His topic, which has been changed from the original subject, will be a discussion of French art in the twentieth century. He will illustrate his talk with slides.

M. de la Ferriere, French deputy consul general in San Francisco and a doctor of law, is a graduate of the French National Institute for Overseas Affairs. Since 1946, he has, in turn, held positions in Indochina (1946-1954) as cabinet chief of the French representative in Cambodia, then cultural attache in Saigon. He served on the staff of the foreign office in Paris (1954-1957), also as consul in Tunisia. He also held the position of first secretary of the Embassy in Karachi.

Descendant of an illustrious family, he counts among his forebears a companion to Lafayette during the War of Independence, Admiral Marquis d'Amblimont. Another of his ancestors was General Thomas Sumter, one of the heroes of the War of Independence, a member of the first Congress and signer of the Declaration of Independence.

To coincide with the visit of this distinguished Frenchman the Alliance Francaise de la Peninsule de Monterey will present tonight its first scholarship to a student of French on the Peninsula and will remit two prizes to two other excellent students of the French language. The three laureates were selected from the three public high schools in this area.

Madame de la Ferriere will accompany her husband to the Peninsula. Both will be honored at an intimate dinner, attended by members of the board and honorary directors of the organization, and others. The dinner which will start at 6:00 o'clock will be held in the Crystal Room of Pine Inn.

Also guests of the group will be the three students of French chosen for awards according to Mrs. Jerome Carlson, L'Alliance Francaise president.

Carmel Committee Members Announced By Salvation Army

Families in trouble who have no one to turn to are given immediate emergency aid by the Salvation Army on the Monterey Peninsula. These include needy transient families, as well as those having such problems as long unemployment and chronic illness.

Service reports for the past year show that over 500 men, women and children were assisted by the four local service unit committees on the Peninsula. Northern California regional services are also available to local people, among them being emergency disaster aid, summer camps, and an emergency shelter for women and children.

To finance the work of the four Monterey Peninsula service unit committees, as well as the statewide and regional services provided for Monterey Peninsula residents, The Salvation Army is conducting its own independent operating fund drive this year, which will include both a mail campaign and a special gifts phase.

Local services activities of the Salvation Army are carried out by the four volunteer-staffed service unit committees of Carmel, Monterey, Pacific Grove and Seaside. In Carmel, Fire Chief Robert E. Smith is serving as acting chairman and treasurer, Mrs. Mary L. Clayton as welfare secretary, and Mrs. Rose B. Smith as the committee's recording secretary. Other members include J. E. Abernethy, Mrs. Charles Askew, Miss Katharine F. Branson, Colonel William McCaskey Chapman, Police Chief Clyde Klaumann, Allen Knight, Eugene W. Nissen, William J. Rissel, Mrs. Clara Winslow and Norman C. Winslow.

Big Sur Resident Appointed To State Commission

Governor Edmund G. Brown recently announced his appointment of Nicholas Roosevelt of Big Sur to the Recreation Commission.

"In addition to the distinction he has gained as journalist, author and diplomat, Nicholas Roosevelt has amassed a great amount of understanding and wisdom in his many years in conservation, scenic planning and recreation," the governor said.

A native of New York City, Roosevelt, 68, was graduated from Harvard in 1914. He served as attache of the American Embassy in Paris and as secretary of the American International Corporation's mission to Spain, vice governor of the Philippine Islands, United States Minister to Hungary, and on the American Committee to Negotiate Peace. He is a Republican.

His career as a newspaperman included service on the New York Tribune, the Vienna Neue Freie Presse, Le Temps of Paris, De Haagsche Post of Holland, the New York Times and the New York Herald Tribune.

During the first World War, he served as a captain in the Infantry. During the second World War, he was deputy director of the Office of War Information. Among his books are The Restless Pacific, A New Birth of Freedom and A Front Row Seat. His home is on Partington Ridge, Big Sur, and he has been a prime proponent of the Monterey County Master Plan to preserve the scenic beauty of Highway One.

1962 Bach Festival Soloists Announced, Tickets On Sale Now

Single tickets will go on sale tomorrow for all performances of the 1962 Bach Festival which will take place July 20-29. The tickets will be available at the Bach Festival Box Office on San Carlos between Ocean and Seventh Avenues, and will be open Monday through Friday from 10:00 to 4:00 o'clock.

Festival conductor and music director Sandor Salgo has scheduled an unusually interesting repertoire to be complemented by a brilliant array of soloists, for this 25th Anniversary season.

Among the musicians who will make their debuts this year are Soulima Stravinsky, son of the famous composer, Igor; Walter Trampler, considered one of the outstanding virtuosos of the viola and viola d'amore; Eileen Washington, harpsichord virtuoso and a leading authority on eighteenth century music; mezzo soprano Carolyn Stanford who is rapidly becoming one of this country's most popular concert artists; sopranos Cehleen Bischoff and Barbara Phillips who are gaining well deserved recognition for their performances in the Middle West and Far West respectively; and tenor Charles Bressler, who has received national critical acclaim for his concert and opera performances, and most recently was lauded for his portrayal of the Evangelist in a Carnegie Hall performance of Bach's Passion According to St. John.

Soloists familiar to Bach Festival audiences who will return this year are: Marie Gibson, Florine Hemmings, Katharine Schlinger, Pauline Law, Jacqueline Layng, Richard Riffel, Thomas Paul, James Tippey, Alice Ehlers, Ralph Linsley, Ludwig Altman, Roberta and Colin Sterne, Eva Heintz, Rosemary Waller, Raymond Duste, and Edward Haug.

President Ferrante Grooms 1962 Bach Festival Committee

Bach Festival workers who never appear on stage and whose efforts to assure the success of each season are seldom realized by the vast majority of festival audiences, met last Sunday to plan for this summer's twenty-fifth anniversary season. These unsung heroes and heroines are members of the Bach Festival Committee who annually undertake an assortment of tasks to assure the smooth functioning of the festival.

This year committee members gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dahl in Pebble Beach where festival president, Peter Ferrante, greeted them with thanks for their past efforts and encouragement for the forthcoming season, which he assured them would provide equal amounts of work and enjoyment.

Conductor Sandor Salgo and his wife were present at the meeting and the former spoke briefly about program plans for the 1962 season, and also mentioned how important to the performers is the job done by the festival committee. The committee, which was instigated to help relieve the burden on management and participants at festival time, undertake such responsibilities as housing, transportation, practice and wardrobe arrangements, program sales, auditorium and Mission Concert details and a variety of hospitality tasks.

Special recognition was given to the Mission Concert committee, Charles Thomas, chairman, assisted by Polly Bowhay, Gertrude Chappell, Peg Minor, Ruth Blanchard and Betty Szold. This group did an outstanding job last year.

Among those at Sunday's meeting were: Mrs. Jay Chappell, Mrs. Jimmy Hatlo, Mrs. Walter Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Klene, Mrs. Walter de Martini, Mrs. Karl Rohrer, Mrs. Walter Lehmann, Angie Machado, Professor and Mrs. John Brock, Dr. and Mrs. Mast Wolfson, Mayor and Mrs. Eben Whittlesey, the Reverend H. M. M. Nicholas, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Wurzmann, Mel Taylor, the Reverend Charles A. Dowdell, Dr. and Mrs. James Niebel, Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Gara, Dr. Frederick Huber, Ted Durein, Mrs. Harwell Dyer, John P. Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Rider, Larry Rose and Mrs. Frank Lloyd.

New Hospital Will Be Ready June 15 To Accept Patients

The new Community Hospital facility is undergoing a thorough scrubbing after over 7,000 visitors visited the new 100-room facility during the three-day open house last week end.

The cleanup is not necessitated by the orderly guests who toured the hospital, but is routine procedure prior to moving patients into a new hospital. Administrator Tom Tonkin, meanwhile, says the new hospital is closed to visitors until after the opening about June 15. Patients from the old hospital are expected to be moved to the new one within three weeks.

Dr. Arnold Manor, one of the leaders of the project, reported that the reaction from the public last week end was overwhelmingly favorable. Many called it the most beautiful building in the world. Charles Simpson, a trustee who was in charge of the dedication ceremonies Friday, conservatively estimated the number of visitors during the open house at 7,000.

Tonkin said many visitors were surprised upon learning there will be no increase in room rates at the new hospital.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERMON

Spiritual alertness is needed to meet the challenge of today. This is a theme of the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, Alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced" which will be heard at Christian Science services Sunday.

The Responsive Reading will include Paul's advice to the Ephesians (6): "Be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil."

One of the citations to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states: "Be watchful, sober, and vigilant. The way is straight and narrow, which leads to the understanding that God is the only Life. It is a warfare with the flesh, in which we must conquer sin, sickness, and death, either here or hereafter,—certainly before we can reach the goal of Spirit, or Life in God" (p. 324).

new section to be known as Section 536.5, which shall read as follows:

"Section 536.5. VEHICLES SHALL NOT BE DRIVEN ON BEACHES, PARKS, OR OTHER PUBLIC GROUNDS. No person shall drive or operate any vehicle on any beach, park, or other property owned by the City except on designated roads or parking areas unless such driving or operation is for a governmental purpose, emergency rescue work, or necessitated by authorized construction work."

Section 2. Statement of Urgency. This ordinance is hereby declared to be an urgency ordinance, and shall take effect immediately upon final passage and adoption; a statement of the urgency is as follows:

That it is vital and necessary to the City in order to preserve the peaceful enjoyment of its beaches, parks and other public grounds to adopt this ordinance as rapidly as possible in order that the invasion of such grounds by vehicles will be eliminated. That collections of motor vehicles are expected in the area in connection with racing events during June, 1962, and that it is necessary for the immediate preservation of the peace, that this ordinance be in effect to preserve the public areas of the City prior to the arrival of such vehicles in the area of the City in large quantity. That in the premises it is for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety.

CERTIFICATION OF CITY CLERK

I, the undersigned, City Clerk of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea, California, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of Ordinance No. 44 C.S. which was given its first reading at a Regular Meeting of the City Council of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea, held on the 9th day of May, 1962, and finally adopted at an Adjourned Meeting of the said Council on the 24th day of May, 1962.

I further certify that upon its passage the foregoing Ordinance was signed by the Mayor of said City and attested by the City Clerk thereof.

DATED this 25th day of May, 1962.

Graduation Party At Beach Club

Following graduation ceremonies at the Katherine Branson School in Ross on June 7, a group of Pamela Canfield's friends will be driven in chartered buses to Pebble Beach for a dinner dance at the Beach Club as guests of Pamela's mother, Mrs. Matthew C. Jenkins and Mr. Jenkins, who will chaperone the party which will celebrate Pamela's graduation that day.

After the dinner dance the guests will gather around huge bonfires on the beach adjacent to the Beach Club for singing and from there will go on to the Jenkinses' home, Live Oak Meadow, overlooking Stillwater Cove for breakfast before boarding the buses for the return trip to San Francisco.

Mayor Bound For Great Britain

On June 20 Mayor Eben Whittlesey, Mrs. Whittlesey, and their daughter, Debbie, who will graduate from Sunset School on June 14, will fly to New York, the first lap of a six-week trip to the British Isles. There they will see Eben's two brothers, Granville and Julian, and their families. From New York they will fly to Scotland for 10 days, then down to London for two weeks.

Mrs. Whittlesey has friends who live just outside of London, and Eben's oldest niece, Mme. George Berthoin, is married to an official in the French embassy and lives with her family (which includes four little girls) in London, so the travelers will have a particularly interesting time there.

"After this," says Mrs. Whittlesey, "we have no set itinerary. We're going to rent a car and wander around, and we may possibly go over to France for a short visit." Meanwhile, Regan, the remaining member of the family, will stay at the Guide Dog Center in San Rafael, and will welcome the mayor home when the Whittleseys fly back over the pole in August.

Carmel Woman's Club

The Carmel Woman's Club will hold its annual luncheon meeting on Monday at 12:30 o'clock. This will be the last meeting of the club year, and new officers for the coming year will be elected. Members whose names start with A through M are asked to bring salad, those from N through Z to bring cake. Following the meeting, members who wish to play cards may do so. The luncheon is restricted to members only.

A reception honoring Mrs. Joseph Ewing, who is leaving Carmel soon with her husband to live in Pennsylvania, was held on Wednesday of last week. Fruit punch and cookies were served from a table decorated with a mixed spring bouquet arranged by Mrs. F. L. Knudsen. Other bouquets were placed around the room. In the receiving line with Mrs. Ewing were past presidents Mrs. Alton Walker, Mrs. Verne Skillman, Mrs. Barbara Murphy, and Mrs. H. C. Schroeder. The reception was arranged by Miss Ianthe Densmore.

Dr. Nowell To Lecture

Dr. Ann Nowell of Carmel will speak June 3, 8:00 o'clock, at the U.S.O. Topics for the evening will be Attitudes of Parents with Retarded Children and Education versus Institutionalization. The meeting is sponsored by the Peninsula Council for Retarded Children. The public is invited. A question and answer period will follow Dr. Nowell's lecture.

Stan Gray Wins Honors

Stanton Gray, the son of Dr. and Mrs. K. Fillmore Gray, received the Fortuna Cup at the honors assembly at Wasatch Academy in Mt. Pleasant, Utah, on May 26. This honor goes each year to the most promising actor, and in addition, he was one of the five students to earn a letter award for work in drama, the other medal winners being seniors.

At the same assembly he was presented a certificate of scholarship excellence for the year, and attended an honor banquet with winners from other classes.

On Saturday evening, Stanton was one of nine finalists participating in the fifty-ninth annual F. C. Jensen literary program when he presented a dramatic reading from the play, Diary of Anne Frank.

During the past year he was president of the sophomore class, and after his vacation, to be spent in Carmel, will return to Wasatch for his junior year.

His older brother, Stephen, a last year's graduate of Wasatch Academy, is just completing his freshman year at the University of the Pacific, and will be in Carmel for just a few days before going on June 11 to Yosemite where he will work during the summer.

Colonel Raney Completes Course

Colonel Joseph D. Raney, United States Army, the son of Mrs. Joseph H. Raney of Carmel, this month completed the one-week National Guard refresher course at the Army and General Staff College, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

Colonel Raney, a graduate of Pomona College, entered the Army in 1940, and is a senior advisor to the 49th Infantry Division, a National Guard unit, in Alameda. He and his wife live in Oakland, and their son, Joseph, lives on the Peninsula and is a first year student at Monterey Peninsula College.

Trios At Nepenthe

This Sunday's two programs in the Big Sur spring chamber music series at Nepenthe will be performances of Beethoven's Archduke Trio and the Trio in B Major, Opus 8, by Brahms. The players will be Austin Reller, violin; Helen Stross, cello; and Margaret Fabrizio, piano; and the concerts will begin at 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon and 8:30 o'clock in the evening.

COUNTY X-RAY UNIT

HERE JUNE 10

Free chest X-rays will be given in Carmel on June 10, 1:00 - 5:00 o'clock in the afternoon, by the Monterey County health department. The mobile X-ray unit will be parked near the post office that afternoon. The X-rays take only a few minutes. No clothes need to be removed. Results are mailed later to those who take advantage of this county health service.

John Allen Frank, above, proudly exhibits his wins with Zulu Lu, his Basenji. Johnny, son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Frank of Carmel, is 11 years old and was the youngest exhibitor at the Del Monte Kennel Club's Dog Show last Sunday. This was his very first show with Zulu and she won two points toward her championship which is quite a record for a novice exhibitor and Zulu's first time in the ring.

Third Birthday For Johnny

Johnny Ellsworth Chaffey of Los Angeles, who has been visiting on the Peninsula this week with his mother, Mrs. Ben Chaffey, and his sister, Margaret (who was born April 25), celebrated his third birthday with a party Saturday afternoon at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Russell Williams of Carmel Highlands.

Balloons, ice cream and cake, candy cigarettes as favors, paper hats and all the trimmings were enjoyed by Johnny's guests who sat around a long table. They included his aunt, Molly Williams; Lee and Christina Price; Naomi Beth and Anina Marcus; Teddy, Donny and Megah Criley; Mark and Laura Duskin, and Janie Miller.

Members of several older generations on the sidelines included Johnny's other grandmother, Mrs. John Chaffey of Pacific Grove; his aunt, Honey Williams; Mrs. John Nesbitt with Penny and Joe Nesbitt; Mrs. Harold Price, Mrs. Alan Marcus, Mrs. Donald Criley and Mrs. Alvin Duskin.

Four guests who were too small to sit at the birthday table, but who seemed to enjoy watching the festivities from their mothers' laps, were Johnny's sister, Margaret Chaffey, Jennifer Price, Sarah Duskin and David Marcus.

Major Charlton In Thailand

Army Major John B. Charlton, the son of Mrs. Aimee B. Charlton of Carmel, recently took part in training maneuvers in Thailand under auspices of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization (SEATO).

Major Charlton, who is in the Army intelligence service, entered the Army in 1945. He last visited Carmel in August, just before this tour of duty. He and his wife, Doris, and their two children, Gregory, 14, and Valerie, 12, whose home is in Baltimore, are now living on Okinawa where the young Charltons attend school.

When her son was learning Cantonese at the Army Language School in Monterey seven years ago (he speaks fluent Japanese, as well, also Spanish, the result of four years in Puerto Rico), Mrs. Charlton came to Carmel "for a short visit," and has made her home here ever since.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Arthur Cramblett, above, are seen leaving All Saints' Episcopal Church after their wedding on Saturday afternoon. The Reverend David Hill performed the 2:00 o'clock ceremony.

The bride, Carol Louise Wise, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Raymond Wise of Carmel, and was escorted up the aisle of the church by her father. White gladioli and chrysanthemums were massed on either side of the altar, and the wedding music was played by organist Robert Forbes.

Carol wore a floor-length gown of pearl-trimmed Chantilly lace over tulle, with long sleeves and a scalloped neckline. A wreath of pearls and leaves held her fingertip illusion veil. She carried a bouquet of white butterfly roses, surrounding a white orchid center, garnished with bouvardia.

Mrs. Robert Wise, the bride's sister-in-law, was her matron of honor. Mary Jane Shellington of Wayne, Nebraska, Wanda Turner of Monterey, and Mrs. Barry Buss of Walnut Creek, were Carol's bridesmaids. The attendants were dressed alike in turquoise silk organza sheaths with bouffant overskirts, and wore headdresses which were circlets of turquoise net and satin. Yellow carnations surrounded the yellow iris center of their bouquets.

Six-year-old Kimberley Anne Raine, the bride's little cousin, was the flower girl. She was dressed in yellow heritage lace with a yellow flower crown, and carried a white basket filled with yellow roses. (The bride herself was the flower girl at the wedding of Kimberley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack R. Raine of Salinas, when they were married in the Church of the Wayfarer in June of 1949.)

The bridegroom's best man was Gregory Teaby, Jr., of Monterey. Carol's three brothers, Robert, was wearing a beige suit with matching accessories. They will make their home in Monterey.

Robert was graduated from high school in Peoria, Illinois, in 1960, and is at present serving with the United States Navy.

Carol, a 1961 graduate of Carmel High School, is employed by a local utility company.

Out of town guests at the wedding included the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Frederick Raine, and also her great-aunt, Mrs. Edward Raine, both of Salinas; Mr. and Mrs. Cramblett, the bridegroom's parents, also his sister, Mrs. Paul Reinmann, with her daughter, Tammy, all from Peoria.

Family Visitors At McKenneys'

Mrs. George Hynes (Gray Burnham), with her two small daughters, Regan, two and one half, and one-month-old Linden, have been visiting Gray's mother, Mrs. Carol McKenney, and Dr. McKenney in Pebble Beach. Mr. Hynes joined his family over the Memorial Day holiday and they will return to their Marin County home this week.

Before Wendy Burnham, Mrs. McKenney's second daughter, flies home from Wellesley College next week, she will usher at the Wellesley graduation ceremonies on Monday. Wendy, who is just finishing her junior year, is majoring in Italian and is president of the Italian Club.

Robin Burnham, Mrs. McKenney's youngest daughter, whose engagement to Dick Holt, a last year's graduate of the United States Naval Academy, was announced in February, will be home June 15 to make plans for her marriage in September. Robin has been working in San Francisco.

Reunion, Summer Plans of Farris

Senator and Mrs. Fred Farr were at Monterey Airport on Tuesday to meet their older daughter, Francesca, home from Stephens College, Missouri, where she received her associate in arts degree on Monday morning. On Saturday the Farris' son, Sam, is expected home from Willamette College in Salem, Oregon, where he has completed his junior year.

Franny will be helping Rosa Doner, director of the Carmel Parent Nursery School, during the last two weeks of the semester. After that she plans to take a course or two at Monterey Peninsula College this summer, or have a part-time job, or perhaps combine the two.

Sam, meanwhile, with a Berkeley friend, will fly to Buenos Aires for the summer, with stops along the west coast of South America on the way, to work in a factory there, and he plans to fly home by the east coast, also with stopovers. A week of skiing in Chile will be fitted into Sam's summer, too.

The Farris' younger daughter, Nancy, who will be a Sunset School graduate on June 14, is looking forward to a July visit to Blue Lake (near Clear Lake), where she will be the houseguest of Sacramento friends. Nancy will do some sailing when Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kleps (he is administrator of the California courts) take their boat to Blue Lake for the Fourth of July holiday.

As for summer plans for the older generation, Mrs. Farr says that there had been "talk of a trip" after the state legislature closed. "That was in March," she comments, "I'm still hoping!"

Mrs. Burde President of League

Mrs. Walter Burde of Carmel, whose husband is associated with an architectural firm here, was recently elected president of the California Council of the Women's Architectural League. The league, which was founded in 1940 to promote the profession of architecture, functions as an auxiliary of the American Institute of Architects, and the council is composed of representatives from 10 such leagues in the state. Some of the league's activities are raising scholarships for architectural students, and sponsoring house tours, lectures, and competitions in the field of design.

Mr. and Mrs. Burde, who have lived in Carmel for 14 years, have two daughters, Mrs. Rodney Phillips of Lakewood, Colorado, and Meredith, who will be graduating from Sunset School on June 14.

Ann And Danny Will Wed

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Giles of Carmel have announced the engagement of their daughter, Wanda Ann, to Daniel Michael Moore, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Moore of Carmel Valley.

Ann, who is the granddaughter of County Treasurer Russell W. Giles and Mrs. Giles, is a member of this year's graduating class at Carmel High School where she has been head cheer leader this year. Danny, a Carmel High School graduate, is employed by a Monterey plumbing and heating firm.

Pop Sees His "I Do Girls"

Six years ago Pop Smith gave the bride away when Mr. (at that time Army captain) and Mrs. Don Donninger were married in the Church of the Wayfarer. The Donningers then went East and Pop didn't see them again until a recent Saturday when they came to call at his penthouse. (They now live in Redondo Beach and have two daughters.)

"This was a pleasant surprise," relates Pop, "but I had even more of a surprise when my other 'I do girl' turned up with her husband from San Francisco to visit me the very next day." This was Mrs. Frank Shiel, the former Dorothy Andrews of San Francisco, who as a bride three months ago was also given away by Pop at the Church of the Wayfarer. "Quite a coincidence," he comments.

Volunteer Services Luncheon

The Monterey Peninsula Volunteer Services will hold a meeting at 11:00 o'clock tomorrow at La Playa Hotel, to be immediately followed by a luncheon honoring those who loaned their gardens to the M P V S for its annual garden tour. A check representing the proceeds of the tour will be presented to the Visiting Nurse Association, for whose benefit the tour was held.

Mrs. Edward Downard, hospital-ity chairman, has asked that all members attending the luncheon wear "original design" hats, the wilder the better. Reservations may be made by telephoning MA 4-8201 or MA 4-6159.

Betsy Makes Wedding Plans

Betsy Coleman, the daughter of Mrs. Louise Coleman of Carmel, has chosen her bridal attendants for her wedding June 23 to Alvin (Micky) Hurst, which will take place at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon at All Saints' Episcopal Church with the Reverend David Hill performing the ceremony.

Betsy's matron of honor will be Mrs. Don Rowe, and her three bridesmaids will be Penny Nielsen, Dianne Whelan and Layton Thies, all of Carmel. Bill Coleman will give his sister away.

Bill Pullen, a fellow student of Micky's at the Naval Postgraduate School, will be the best man. Troy Roughbush of Monterey, and Don Rowe and Tony Schaurer of Carmel will usher.

Receive Service Awards

An award dinner honoring employees of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company will be held at the Villa Caruso tomorrow evening.

Employees from the Carmel area who will receive service awards are Claude A. Hicks, for 25 years of service; James R. Harkins, 15 years; George U. Thompson, 15 years; and Lachlan A. Van Bibber, 10 years.

Wendy Graduates, Flies Home

Not many girls fly home by private plane from their college graduations, but yesterday Wendy Wiegman was one of those lucky people. The daughter of Mrs. Beatrice L. Wiegman of Carmel, Wendy received her associate in arts degree at Stephens College, Missouri, on Monday morning, and was flown home yesterday by Larry Hall, a longtime family friend, who flew his plane to Missouri to see Wendy graduate.

Mrs. Wiegman, who teaches at Sunset School, was unable to go East for the ceremonies.

Mrs. Gahl Writes From Cairo

Mrs. Ramona Gahl, who left Carmel last month for an around the world air tour, reports by postcard that she is in Cairo, about to embark on the last lap of her trip. Although Bombay was "torrid and humid," Mrs. Gahl enjoyed New Delhi and the Taj Mahal, and was about to make an expedition to the Egyptian pyramids.

Mrs. Gahl, who before leaving Carmel was still recuperating from a broken hip, writes that she never felt better and that "I have to pinch myself to know that I am here."

Del Monte Dog Show Entries, Attendance Top Prior Records

The largest entry in the history of the Del Monte Kennel Club was realized last Sunday on the lawns before Del Monte Lodge. A record crowd estimated at close to 5,000 spectators watched the judging of 1,537 dogs of all breeds, and the obedience trials.

Best in Show was Ch. Tedwin's Top Billing, a white miniature poodle, owned by E. E. Ferguson of Hollywood.

Group winners were: Sporting breeds: a black cocker spaniel, Ch. Whitfield's Why Certainly, owned by Briarcliffe Kennels of Southern California; Hound breeds: smooth dachshund, Ch. White Gables Ristocrat, owned by Mrs. Albert E. Van Court of Los Angeles; Working breeds: Ch. Carmel Valley residents, who over the past several years have voiced objection to a variety of commercial developments in their area, including a mushroom farm, nursing home and a wild animal ranch, Tuesday surprised Monterey County Planning Commissioners when 17 of them admitted they have no objection to an honest pig farm in their midst.

Planners approved a four-year permit for Russell Wolter to operate a pig farm on the south end of his ranch, an operation he has pursued for the past 10 years. Wolter applied for the permit because a state permit to use garbage as feed for his 60 porkers is contingent on the granting of the county permit.

The permit was granted over a single objection, from rancher John Meadows.

The city council, Monday night, approved, by 3 to 2 vote, a three percent salary increase for 38 full-time and two part-time city employees, effective tomorrow. Councilmen Francis Whitaker and Herbert Blanks voted against the resolution which will up the total city outlay for salaries to $214,000, an increase of approximately $7,000.

The salary raise does not include elected officials or those who are retained on a fee basis.

Members of the Carmel Red Cross chapter who met Miss Maria Grana Ottone, president of the auxiliary volunteer services of the Peruvian National Red Cross, were impressed with the 13-thousand-hour pin she wore on her uniform when she visited here on Monday.

Miss Grana has held her present position for over ten years. She proudly announced that the Peruvian Red Cross, founded in 1879, was the first in the Americas.

She also said that many of the Red Cross volunteers in Peru are young persons, "just out of high school."

Mrs. H. M. Tolfree has donated her collection of autographs to the Harrison Memorial Library. Full details of this gift are included in the Librain's Column in this issue.

George Mardikian, owner of the internationally famous Omar Khayyam restaurant in San Francisco, will be the speaker at the 29th Annual Meeting of the Monterey Bay Area Council, Inc., Boy Scouts of America tomorrow evening, Loren Smith, dinner chairman, advises. The event will be held at the Mark Thomas Inn.

An American-born immigrant who rose from a dishwasher to fame and fortune, Mardikian has received commendations from Presidents and the War Department. Presidents Herbert Hoover, Harry Truman and Dwight Eisenhower have all commended him for army food conservation and betterment of army food.

Residents within the city limits may obtain rides to the polls on Tuesday, if they so desire, by telephoning the Clyde Klaumann for Sheriff headquarters between 10:00 o'clock in the morning and 6:00 o'clock in the afternoon. The number is MAYfair 4-8014.

The Monterey County Board of Education awarded life diplomas this month to five teachers currently and formerly with the Carmel School District:

Jean Johnson Agan, general elementary; Gordon E. Gartz, general secondary and general elementary;

Marilyn Louise McQuillin and Janet B. Herben, kindergarten-primary and general elementary, and Charles O. Moody, general secondary.

The city of Carmel has received $2,491 as its six-month share of the license fees, renewal fees and fines paid by holders of alcoholic beverage licenses.

MONTEREY MONTH AT TOWN HOUSE

June will be Monterey month at the Carmel Foundation Town House. The art exhibit hanging in the livingroom will be the work of two of the students from Mr. Si Ostermeier's class in painting at Neighborhood Senior Center in Monterey, Mrs. Elizabeth Kolb and Mrs. Nina Scott. This exhibit will be up all during the month and can be viewed from 10:00 to 5:00 o'clock Monday through Friday.

The first regular Wednesday meeting of the month will have as speaker Mr. Ostermeier, who will discuss his philosophy of painting for amateurs. Mrs. Scott will have on exhibit one of her original flower arrangements, and Mrs. Kolb will tell her impressions of the art exhibit at the Seattle World's Fair, which will be of special interest to members who are going to the Fair in August.

This and later programs during the month will emphasize the importance of Monterey's 192nd birthday, which is being celebrated on the Peninsula on Sunday.

Letters . . .

you really afford to continue on this basis? And in so doing, are you fair to the taxpayers?

Consider for a moment what you have done to the taxpayers: The assessed value tax base last year increased $7,220,000, which provided $160,000 additional revenue. With this amount the tax rate should have been reduced by at least 30 cents; instead, the taxpayers were given the munificent reduction of two cents. How then, can you claim to be operating within your means? What disposition was made of this money? Furthermore, despite the additional $160,000 revenue you plan to call an election next year to ask the voters not only to approve continuance of the present 50 cents over-ride, but also to increase it to 75 or 80 cents. Does this indicate living within your means?

The proposed budget for 1962-63 totals $1,911,730. This includes $30,000 undistributed reserve and $80,000 general reserve. Deducting these amounts, or $110,000, reduces the budget to $1,801,730, which appears to equal the anticipated revenue. However, I trust you will agree that there is much room for improvement. Therefore, I ask your consideration of the following:

I. Reduce the amount of undistributed reserve from $30,000 to $10,000. This would result in a reduction of four cents in the tax rate.

II. Your salary increases averaging 16.7% in a single year is so overly generous as to make me suggest that you rescind your Salary Resolution passed at your last meeting, and adopt a new schedule limiting the increase to 5% above the schedule now in effect. This would result in an increase of about $38,000 instead of $126,000 as now approved; a difference of $88,000 and a reduction of about 17 cents in our tax rate.

Applying the same 5% increase to Principals, Supervisors, and others now under consideration, would result in an increase of $7,300 instead of the proposed $17,640; or a difference of $10,000 and a reduction of two cents in the tax rate. In the aggregate, making a reduction of 23 cents in the tax rate.

It is my feeling that the adoption of these procedures would in no way incur any hardship on members of the staff, and should in no way affect the standard of education you are trying to maintain. At the same time you would, in small measure, be giving some consideration to the taxpayers.

I thank you, and trust these suggestions will receive your due consideration. Yours truly,
Clifton H. Beckwith.

ART AUCTION TO BENEFIT BEACON HOUSE

The third annual Tennis Court Art Auction on June 10 will benefit Beacon House, rehabilitation center for alcoholics maintained by the Alcoholism Council of the Monterey Peninsula.

Beacon House is not operated for persons taking a "cure," or "drying out," but to give alcoholics an opportunity to learn to live without alcohol, experience sobriety, and be given a chance to take places in the home and community.

The center is self-supporting. A high percentage of the patients pay for care; others live at Beacon House through donations to the council for this service.

The art auction will begin promptly at 2:30 o'clock at the John Gardiner Tennis Ranch in Carmel Valley. A luncheon will precede the auction of paintings by 40 outstanding local artists.

SCHENECTADY DELEGATES

Four delegates from the Church of the Wayfarer will fly to Schenectady, New York, next month to conclude two years' preparation for the 1962 Character Research Project Youth Congress. They are Don Blanks, Kathy Farr, Sharon Dixon and Dick Thomas, who will be accompanied by Bela Benathy as adult counselor.

Are YOU paying over 6% interest?

REFINANCE today with a long 30 YEARS to pay. Also CONSTRUCTION loans to build that new home.

Member Of Sunset's Class Of 1937 Who Will Attend Last Graduation Tells Of Her Childhood In Carmel

Twenty-five years ago, Madelaine McDonogh graduated from Sunset School. She is now Mrs. John Mills of Billings, Montana, and she will come to Carmel to attend Sunset's last graduation exercises on June 14.

Mrs. Mills will be seated in the auditorium with other members of the Class of 1937. They will occupy places of honor as representatives of all past graduates of Carmel's first school, opened in 1906. (Present plans of the school district are to operate Sunset as a kindergarten through sixth grade class after Carmel Junior High School opens.)

Before she arrives here, Mrs. Mills will attend the graduation from the eighth grade of her daughter who is a student at Annie Wright Seminary in Tacoma, Washington.

Recently Mrs. Mills sent to the Pine Cone an account of her childhood in Carmel. These memories recall similar experiences to other members of the Class of 1937 at Sunset School.

"I can still remember," she wrote, "running down the board walk to the beach and Pop Curtis's candy store. Also Mrs. Curtis in her new Empress Eugenie hat, arms akimbo, and the ends of her shawl tucked behind her back.

"When Whitney's was a soda fountain, the best thing in the world, to me, was a pineapple phosphate made by Katherine.

"Of course, there were, too, visits to Slevin's stationery store to see the array of dried seaweed dolls. Eventually I took all the pennies out of my bank to buy one.

"Stella's store was a treasure trove. She once gave me the wax head from an ancient dress figure. I dearly loved it. I always stood so I could peer into Stella's back room where the old wax figures topped an imposing collection of stock items, fascinating to a little girl.

"Other Carmel childhood memories are singing in the choir at the Mission; meeting George Marion who played Father Serra in the Mission pageant; being Ladybug in Inchling, the play put on to save the Forest Theater; dancing in the olio at the First Theatre.

"I remember Spot, a dog, who loved a little wooden table to sit on and later had an observatory

Junipero Serra Graduation June 6 In Carmel Mission

Bishop Harry A. Clinch will present diplomas and awards to Junipero Serra School graduates Wednesday evening at 7:45 o'clock in Carmel Mission Basilica.

built for him which he never seemed to like as well. Also another dog, big and yellow with a pushed-in face, dear old Pal.

"And there was Gus Englund on his horse, a truly wonderful man who told me I could post 'no hunting' signs when neighbor boys were shooting squirrels in the woods. Most of the squirrels were tame, and one loved peanut butter.

"I remember Mr. Ted Kuster, Lincoln Steffens with his little fringe of bangs, spectacles, kind smile and floating cape. When we first stayed at La Playa Hotel, his son Pete wore a bowler hat, a fuzzy fur coat and carried a cane, and he couldn't have been more than four years old. Shim Kuster, Pete Steffens and I became fast friends at the hotel.

"I recall Robinson Jeffers, a remote man, walking the rocks in the evening, but with a kindly smile for a child."

"There was Miss Niles, the librarian, Miss 'Tiny' Baker, whose small stature never diminished her authority, and who let me look at some of the beautiful books on the balcony which had belonged to Mrs. Harrison, who gave the library to Carmel. I hope the library will never be changed too much!

"The eighth graders put out the Sunset School edition of the Pine Cone. What a thrill that was! Ann Millis and I were editors, ably assisted by Donna Hodges whose father owned the stable where I learned to ride a horse named Jim.

"Everyone who has grown up in Carmel has many wonderful memories!" Mrs. Mills concludes.

CARMEL RESIDENT IS COUNTY SCHOOL CANDIDATE
Dr. Verna White, a candidate for Monterey County Superintendent of Schools, is on leave of absence from her position as assistant to Miss Gladys Stone, who is not seeking re-election to the county school position.

ent of Schools, is on leave of absence from her position as assistant to Miss Gladys Stone, who is not seeking re-election to the county school position.

A Carmel resident, Miss White is using this time to campaign. Experience is the basis for her campaign. She is author of a book, Studying the Individual Pupil and in addition to B. A. and M. A. degrees has a Ph. D. from the University of Chicago. Her doctoral dissertation was entitled Evaluating the Ability to Read and Interpret Literature.

Our Expression of Gratitude

Every man, if he is truly a man, strives to better his position in life. In this country each man can better himself by being decent, true, conscientious, and loyal; he betters himself by these attributes even if there are no material gains.

Now we have within this city a man of noble stature who quietly and without fanfare embraces all of the above ideals—not with the thought of bettering himself, but because it is written that this is the way a man should act.

This man's career was brought to our city fathers' attention some 12 years ago. They liked what they saw; they asked that he serve the city.

Twelve years have elapsed and our city has reaped many, many benefits from this man's character and perseverance. Thanks to his work, we walk unafraid through our streets and along our beaches at night. Twelve years of his life—that's 4,383 days and 4,383 nights—have been spent serving the citizens of Carmel.

The time has come when this man asks our permission to better himself materially, asks that we permit him to take on a larger—more meaningful—task. But there are those among us who now whisper and would have you whisper along with them, "This man has done too good a job—we must not let him go away from us."

This would be their reward for twelve years of loyal service. This is their idea of gratitude! Let these people now hear the words of Samuel Johnson, "Gratitude is a fruit of great cultivation; you do not find it among gross people."

If you are grateful for twelve years of peace and safety within this city, then you must show it by giving your approval to this man. You can vote for him. His name is CLYDE KLAUMANN. He is our police chief. He wishes now to be our Sheriff. It is hoped that the citizens of Carmel know the meaning of gratitude—that these same citizens turn out en masse to express their gratitude by voting CLYDE KLAUMANN in the election.
